*OPENING PRAYER

Holy God, earth and heaven resound with your glory, and we are blessed to sing your praises! Open our hearts and minds to your breathtaking work in the world, and open our wills so that we may respond with gratitude as we answer the call of Christ to move a little deeper in our faith as we share his Good News. By the power of your Spirit we pray, Amen.

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

CONFESSION OF SIN

God of the universe, Creator of all that is, we confess that our preference is to live on the shallow side of life. Forgive us for doubting your ability to take our ordinary lives and transform them with vision and purpose to be a blessing for the world. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

CHORAL ANTHEM

GOSPEL Luke 5:1-11

¹ Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, ² he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. ³ He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. ⁴ When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch.” ⁵ Simon answered, “Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets.” ⁶ When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. ⁷ So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. ⁸ But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus’ knees, saying, “Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!” ⁹ For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; ¹⁰ and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people.” ¹¹ When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
